My Tribal Area

https://www.census.gov/tribal/
“While the Census Bureau is planning the most automated and modern decennial census in history, we have not disregarded, and in fact recognized more than ever, the unique challenges associated with conducting the decennial census in American Indian and Alaska Native areas. We share the concerns that tribal delegates have raised about the undercount of American Indians and Alaska Natives in previous counts and are committed to improving this in the 2020 Census.”

“For the 2020 Census, we began tribal consultations with tribal representatives in 2015, 2 years earlier in the census lifecycle than in prior censuses. The Census Bureau held 17 consultations and one national webinar with federally and state recognized tribes and Alaska regional and village corporations. We met with over 400 tribal delegates representing over 250 different tribes, corporations and organizations.”

Testimony – Ron Jarmin
Associate Director of Economic Programs
Performing the Non-Exclusive Functions and Duties of the Director, U.S. Census Bureau
Tribal Partnership Program

- Engage tribal communities toward greater participation in the 2020 Census
- Outreach to tribal populations with historically low response rates and undercounts
- Deliver messaging through trusted tribal and/or community leaders
- Support 2020 Census activities for American Indian and Alaska Natives (AIAN) populations in Indian Country
- Ensure the best possible count of AIAN populations by increasing the overall AIAN self-response rate
Tribal Liaison Program

- Select/Appoint a Liaison
- Educate Tribal Members
- Provide a Trusted Voice
- Training

Goals
1. Communicate the importance and benefits of filling out the Census
2. Encourage tribal members to apply for Census Bureau jobs
3. Work with the Census Bureau and Tribal Partnership Specialists to ensure goals are met within your tribal community
