Sara Murillo serves as the Assistant Director of Administration at the California Complete Count – Census 2020 Office. Murillo is the principle policymaker for all administrative functions and exercises broad policy-making authority over the following areas: fiscal and budget, human resources, information technology, purchasing and contracts, and business services in support of California Complete Count's statutory obligations.

Prior to her current role, she served as the fiscal officer at the Department of Toxic and Substances Control since 2015. She served from 2007 to 2015 as the chief of accounting and chief administration for the Forensic Services Division at the California Department of Mental Health now State Hospitals. From 2003 to 2007, she was the fiscal services division manager at the Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board. She has served for over twenty-nine years (29) as part of executive management teams in small to large departments with a multitude of complex and varied programs specializing in the financial and administrative sphere.

Murillo is devoted to volunteer work within the community and she often volunteers her time at the local animal shelters and at Loaves and Fishes.

About the Census:

California has launched a statewide effort to ensure an accurate and complete count of its residents in the 2020 census. This is unprecedented investment in a statewide education campaign. To reach more than 11 million of the hardest-to-count Californians, the Census Office has tapped local and tribal governments, community-based organizations, and so many more partners to serve as trusted messengers in our communities.

Key Dates:
