Victor Jackson serves as Office Technician at the California Complete Count – Census 2020 Office in Los Angeles. Jackson manages the office in Little Tokyo and works to facilitate, coordinate, and assist the work of the statewide outreach team, especially those located across Southern California.

Prior to his current role, he worked in various capacities in a number of political campaigns, including most recently as a field organizer for Assemblymember Rebecca Bauer-Kahan's campaign in 2018. He has also worked in educational services, focusing on middle school and high school subject tutoring and entrance exam preparation, often with students who have learning differences.

About the Census:

California has launched a statewide effort to ensure an accurate and complete count of its residents in the 2020 census. This is unprecedented investment in a statewide education campaign. To reach more than 11 million of the hardest-to-count Californians, the Census Office has tapped local and tribal governments, community-based organizations, and so many more partners to serve as trusted messengers in our communities.

Key Dates:

Mid-March – July 2020 = Self Response Period – Fill out your form online!

August – October 2020 = Non-Response Follow-Up – Enumerators will knock on your door!
