4. Narrative Report

4a) Please provide an analysis on the strategies, activities, and timelines used throughout the outreach campaign.

As a county office that only directly educates about 1,300 kids on any given school day, the San Diego County Office of Education (SDCOE) focused our efforts on the 700+ Title I schools in San Diego County, which collectively educate more than 475,000 students. We also focused on reading early educators, in order to reach families with children 0-4 with key messages about the census.

We sent census flyers to all Title I schools in the county for posting in the school office. The flyers were in English; we followed up with flyers in Spanish, Chinese, Farsi, Vietnamese, Tagalog, Russian, Korean, Arabic, Khmer, Japanese, and Armenian upon request.

We created #MakeltCountMondays, a weekly campaign that shared resources for the week with Title I principals, for use in their newsletters, website, social media, school marquees, etc. This campaign started in January 2020. We were only able to run the campaign for six weeks before the pandemic closed schools; we anticipate restarting this campaign shortly. The average open rates for these emails was 30%.

Here are links to the #MakeltCountMonday emails that were sent:

- Jan. 27, 2020
- Feb. 3, 2020
- Feb. 10, 2020

County Office of Education

Final Report

SDCOE hosted trainings on the Sacramento County Office of Education- and Los Angeles County Office of Education-designed curriculum, so that teachers could use the curriculum with their students. We also shared the Statistics in Schools curriculum through website stories, social media, and various newsletters in order to offer that option to schools as well. Here are two Statistics in Schools stories we ran on the SDCOE website:

Statistics in Schools Prepares Students for Increasingly Data-Driven World
Estadísticas en las Escuelas Prepara a Estudiantes para un Mundo Cada Vez Más Impulsado por Datos

We hosted census information tables at events such as our Equity Conference and Early Years Conference. These booths were very popular, as were events we hosted in the spring with census representatives and parents of students in SDCOE's Juvenile Court and Community Schools. Those parents in particular were very interested in census job opportunities; that was a good hook for also communicating key messages about the importance of taking the census, the confidentiality of responses, etc. We had planned to host additional in-person parent sessions but couldn't because of the pandemic.

We also created and distributed a resolution for adoption by school governing boards supporting the census. The San Diego County Board of Education, SDCOE's governing board, adopted the resolution and heard a presentation from US Census Bureau and local census partner representatives. Here's a link to the San Diego County Board of Education's census resolution. The board's meetings are televised to 800,000 households on SDCOE's iTV Cable 16, so that was additional exposure to the census. We also ran census spots on iTV.

4b) Please state what adjustments were made to conduct outreach during the shelter-in-place orders.

We initially planned to host QACs, parent workshops, and to continue to table at events, but with the stay-at-home order, we shifted to entirely online (social media and email) efforts.

4c) What activities, if any, do you have planned for June?

We will continue to share information and resources through June and will consider doing so through October.

4d) What approach(s) worked well for outreach to students and their families that could inform subsequent Census outreach efforts in school districts? Why did it work well?

County Office of Education

Final Report

As I noted above, for our population (which is nearly entirely hard-to-count), census job opportunities was a great entry into education about the census. To the extent that can be replicated in school districts, it would be very helpful.

4e) Did the activities reach other audiences? Do you have other insights to share about the approaches?

We had a very broad focus, and because we used so many electronic communications (website, social media, newsletters), nearly all of our communications reached other-than-hard-to-count populations. Our materials were well received, and I think the pacing – one email a week to Title I school principals, one email a month to superintendents – seemed to work well.

4f) Please list 3 to 5 recommendations for operations and processes for future Census outreach. Please state what could be improved and what worked well.

It felt like in the beginning, the census folks weren't always familiar with what a county office does (it varies a lot from region to region), so sometimes there were expectations that we'd do something and that just wasn't possible for our particular situation. Having some different options in terms of the "must haves" might help; like a "pick 3 of these 5 options" menu.

SwORD bulk upload worked well once we got into the swing of things, but some additional training upfront would have been helpful. Also thinking through the specific way to record items like electronic newsletters and making that clear up front would save time.

Having one point of contact – Mignonne Pollard – made things very smooth. We're thankful for her assistance and leadership!

5. Please provide additional comments below

The SDUSD Family Engagement Department's top priority was to educate our families district-wide about the 2020 Census. Used Census data to identify hard to count populations and locations. Additionally, partnered with other departments within SDUSD, school communities, district advisory committees, parent groups, community organizations, government agencies, local churches, sororities, and office of local officials to ensure a complete count.
